Week-End

The first severe winter weather to strike Ohio took a toll of life on roads and highways. Blinding snow and slippery pavements were responsible for many accidents of a minor nature as well as serious ones. Snow forced down two mail planes and a commercial plane with a total of five fatalities. Bus transportation was seriously delayed in many instances and one bus in Columbiana county figured in a collision that disabled it. Pedestrians also numbered among casualties.

Lisbon Woman Dies
Mildred College Williams, 27, wife of George Williams, manager of the Nekirk variety store, Lisbon, was killed in an automobile accident about 4 p. m. Sunday near Rootstown enroute to Ravenna. Mrs. Williams was killed when the automobile, driven by her husband, skidded and turned over. Feeling the car begin to skid, Mrs. Williams opened the door and attempted to leap out, and was caught beneath the car and crushed. The couple was enroute to Ravenna to have a conference with E. D. Nekirk of that place relative to Mr. Williams becoming general manager of the store. They had lived in Lisbon for five years. Mrs. Williams' parents live near Atwater and her mother is very ill. The funeral will be held at Atwater.

Student Aviator
Badly Hurt When
Airplane Wrecks

Columbus, Nov. 26.—Alternately emerging from and slipping back into coma, Max Funk, 19, student aviator, lay on a cot in Grant hospital here today, in his moments of consciousness re-dreaming what he believes to have been a night mare, but what was stark reality to the horrified witnesses to the tailspin and crash of the airplane in which Funk was riding above Norton field here last Saturday. Webster Matthews, instructor, who was at the controls of the plane, suffered several broken ribs but his condition is improving while Funk's injuries, a fractured left leg and right thigh, may prove fatal. "I dreamed," the boy moans. "Web and I were flying. Tailspin, wasn't afraid, Web at the controls. Falling fast. Web working frantically with the stick. Saw the ground—we hit—I don't remember."

KING GEORGE

PNEUMONIA MAY

STRICKEN KING

Spends Restless Night, Is
Bulletin of Doctors
In Attendance

London, Nov. 26.—While the British nation today awaited impatiently the latest news from the bedside of King George, who is suffering from pleurisy, an undercurrent of anxiety developed as to whether his real condition has been revealed.

A prominent specialist, who refused to allow the use of his name, because of medical traditions, said he believed that pneumonia had developed. If this is true the specialist said, an operation might be necessary. While to the public the 11 o'clock bulletin conveyed the impression that the malady was not yielding to treatment, Buckingham palace officials showed no signs of being unduly worried. They said they interpreted the bulletin to mean that the illness was following its normal course. It was pointed out that the restlessness of the patient last night was due to the rise in temperature which reached 101 at one time.

The fact that the physicians reached the palace at 9 o'clock instead of 10, the usual hour, indicated that they were less satisfied with the king's condition. Although the brief bulletin gave no indication that the king's condition was critical, it appeared evident that he was either passing through or approaching the crisis to which pleurisy subjects all its victims. The threat which had milled about the palace gates for hours received the bulletin in forlorn silence. High hopes had been raised for a speedy recovery of the monarch earlier in the morning when officials at the palace had passed about the word that the king was resting easily.

YOUNGEST MAIL
AVIATOR KILLED

Stark County Scene Of Fatal Crash To
Other Pilot

Cleveland, Nov. 26.—Grim, unsmiling men went about their tasks at the airport here today, wondering where the jinx, which has claimed two pilots, in separate crashes, in Northern Ohio, within the last 24 hours, would strike next.

The two men killed were listed with the flower of America's commercial fliers. They were: Lawrence H. Garrison, who was burned to death last night with the National Air Transport company plane, which he was flying from New York crashed at Bristolville, near Warren, O. last evening; and Tilden "Pete" Johnson, Continental Air Service pilot, who "cracked up" near West Lebanon, 12 miles southwest of Massillon, O.

Carry Mail
Both pilots were carrying air mail and both crashes are believed to have resulted from heavy snow falls, which obscured flying vision.

Johnson, who was 21, the youngest air mail pilot in the country, had been missing since 3 o'clock yesterday morning when he took off from here on his regular run to Louisville. Yesterday afternoon his plane with Johnson's body wedged in the fuselage was found by boys who were hunting muskrats. The youthful pilot's plane had plunged west downward, into a swamp near West Lebanon. Searching planes were flying about in the vicinity at the time of the discovery.

Garrison
Garrison, in distress in the thick of a blinding snow fall, had sought to land in a large, vacant pasture at Bristolville. He negotiated the (Continued on Page 3)

Lone Eagle Lost to World
For While; Accident
Is Reported

San Antonio, Texas, Nov. 26.—Col. Charles A. Lindbergh, whose fate during the past 48 hours has been the subject of world-wide speculation, was in San Antonio today, enroute from Mexico to New York. Great secrecy surrounded the landing of the Lone Eagle last night at Kelly Field, near here.

Officials at the field would not admit that he had "checked in." It was understood Lindy had asked them to keep his presence secret so that his departure for the east today would not be delayed.

J. O. Crosby, switchboard operator at Kelly Field, admitted Lindbergh was to hop off today for New York.

Leaves Tampico
Lindbergh hopped off from Tampico, Mexico, yesterday, apparently unaware that he was reported "lost" in a plane crash near Brownsville, Texas, the rumors spread over the country as fast as telegraph wires and radio could carry them.

Later, when searching parties were being organized to scour the border near Brownsville, dispatches from Tampico stated the famous Lone Eagle was safe and that he had hopped off for an "unannounced destination."

The alarm rumors started, according to information received here, when an observer at Fort Brown, U. S. army post at Brownsville, reported sighting an airplane in trouble near there. The plane dipped and shot downward until it was lost to view.

San Antonio, Texas, Nov. 26.—Col. Charles A. Lindbergh, trans-Atlantic flight hero, took off from Kelly field here at 8:31 a. m. today for an unannounced destination in the north. He arrived here late yesterday from a hunting expedition in Mexico.

Although Lindbergh declined to say anything about his plans or his next landing place, Lieut. B. S. Trompen, operations officer at Kelly field said it was his belief that the "Lone Eagle" had every intention of making a nonstop flight to New York today.

Winter Arrives On Job In A Rush

It was plenty cold this morning when you donned bathrobe and slippers and sped down to the furnace, to give that affair an early breakfast and a shaking up.

And say did you notice that milk bottle on the front porch. It was in good order when the milkman left it, but a few minutes later the cap was reposing on a miniature iceberg that raised far above the top of the bottle. This weather in Thanksgiving week reminds one of the old song that told of the trip to grandfather's in a sleigh, drifting snow, and so on. That kind of a Thanksgiving has not been present in several years, but if the elements would have held off for a few days we would have had one this year, and nothing else but!

Just how cold it was this morning is not entirely settled. Some report that mercury was down to 12 degrees above, while others say it was not as bad as all that. But nevertheless, we will have to criticize old King Winter for handing us a mighty jolt, for a starter.

Speaking of starters, would the battery turn yours over this morning?

The weatherman states that it is going to be fair and not so cold tomorrow. He misses occasionally, but let's hope he rings the bell this time.

HOOVER MAKES

Latin-America Good-Will Tour Activities
Started

Abcord U. S. S. Maryland (via Arlington radio station, Nov. 26.—President-elect Herbert Hoover will make the first two "friendship" calls on his Latin-American "good-will" itinerary today at Amapala, Honduras, and La Union, Salvador.

The battleship Maryland will anchor six miles off shore from Amapala this morning and the Hoover party will immediately be taken to the city in motor launches. Representatives of President Miguel Pas Barahona, of Honduras, and possibly the president himself, will greet the president-elect's party. Mr. Hoover will then deliver the first message on the purpose of his tour.

Lunches will follow, after which the entire party will be taken the ten miles across the Bay of Fonseca to La Union in the launches. Most of the members of Salvador's cabinet are on the reception committee which will greet Mr. Hoover at La Union but it is uncertain whether President Romero Bosque, of Salvador, will be present.

A sumptuous banquet has been planned for the evening at which Mr. Hoover is expected to express his appreciation of the fact that American relations with Central America are most amicable. The Hoover party will then be taken back to the Maryland which will resume its course southward.

Thus Aimee Semple McPherson, titian-haired goddess of the Angelus temple, speeding to Los Angeles, today branded charges under grand jury investigation that Keyes, former district attorney of Los Angeles, was bribed to drop prosecution of her famous "kidnaping" case.

UNEMPLOYMENT
IS SCHEDULED

Congress to Review Many
Phases of Conditions
In America

PLAN TO RELIEVE SITUATION SEEN

Hoover Building Plans
Also Subject For Discussion

Washington, Nov. 26.—Every phase of unemployment will be investigated during the coming session of congress by the senate committee on education and labor, Sen. James Couzens (R) of Michigan, announced today.

The committee will consider means of determining the number of unemployed, methods of relieving the condition, and the situation which may be brought about in the future through a virtual revolution of industrial methods.

One of the first efforts of the committee will be devoted to methods of taking an unemployment census, with a view of ending disputes which marked the recent presidential campaign, when the number of unemployed was placed at from 1,000,000 to 7,000,000 by campaign orators.

The so-called Hoover three billion dollar building reserve plan and the five-day week proposals of the American Federation of Labor also are expected to be considered. Couzens pointed out that in the Harding unemployment conference of 1921 the speeding up of public works was recommended. He was mayor of Detroit at the time he was named a delegate to the conference. The city of Detroit, he said, had already instituted some projects and augmented them after the conference with the result that Detroit got through the year without soup kitchens.

A survey of unemployment made during the past summer by the National Institute of Economics will be presented to the committee.

FEDERAL AGENTS
MAKE OHIO RAID

Stuebenville Scene Of Activities; 26 Taken
By Officers

Columbus, Nov. 26.—Twenty-six men, arrested in a spectacular raid by federal prohibition agents at Stuebenville yesterday were held in county jail here pending their arraignment before U. S. Commissioner Joseph W. Horner here at 2 p. m. today.

Those arrested and charged with conspiracy to violate the federal prohibition law were: Joe Guido, Edward Ray, Anthony Deserero, James Cunningham, Andrew Seaton, Joseph Monaco, George Roster, Herman Lester, Eugene Fallon, Thomas Anderson, John Manos, Steve Galavito, Eugene Tudlow, Louis Varva, Alex Kenogas, Milton Ripps, Tom Walker, George J. Ellis, Vincent Casali, William Andrews, Joseph Daniels, Frank Stein, Lawrence De Mayo, Clyde J. Brannon, Joseph Anderson and John Marooncy.

Federal officers who participated in the raid were extremely reticent in discussing the round-up and maintained a studied silence when queried as to their connection of bootlegging activities in the Stuebenville district, although it was said that Guido was the guiding spirit in liquor manufacturing there.

The men submitted to arrest peacefully and no shots were fired according to federal officers who stated the raid was made on an alleged gambling hall where roulette wheels and other gambling paraphernalia were found.

Presidential Campaign Costs
Scheduled For Committee

Limitation In Future May Be Result From
Investigation

Washington, Nov. 26.—The first move toward investigation of 1928 presidential campaign expenditures may be taken today when the senate campaign funds committee meets to arrange a program for its future activities. The committee, which spent several weeks last summer inquiring into pre-convention campaigns, may decide to investigate the huge expenditures by both the Republican and Democratic national committees in the campaign just closed. Several senatorial elections may also be brought under their inquisitorial spotlight.

Disclose Little
If the committee decides to inquire into the presidential campaign expenditures, the investigation probably will reveal little not already known. Under existing statute, both the Republicans and Democrats filed monthly statements of all their financial accounts during the campaign. These statements included the names of all contributors and the amounts donated as well as explanations of all expenditures.

May Place Limit
The inquiry however may be undertaken to determine whether congress should place a limit on presidential expenditures. In campaigns prior to 1928, the Republican party has been lucky enough to have a fat money bag from which to finance its fight.

The Democrats usually have been poor, ending their campaigns with large deficits that seldom get paid off until the next quadrennial campaign is started. Under these circumstances, the Democrats naturally would favor a limitation of presidential campaign funds, while the Republicans would be expected to oppose such a move.

The senate committee incidentally must draft a final report on its lengthy inquiry into the Republican and Democratic pre-convention campaigns. That investigation went at great length into the activities of President-elect Herbert Hoover's fight for the Republican nomination.

Helen Tinsley, Virginia Cain and Martha Wernet were given second-class badges. These three scouts were the first to become second class scouts. This troop was organized March 4, last, and 33 scouts have passed the tenderfoot test to date.

U. S. TO VIEW ECLIPSE

Time was when eclipses of the moon struck terror in the hearts of the ancients, but today they are regarded as a sort of celestial side-show, well worth remaining up for—or getting up for—in the small hours of the morning.

In the early hours of Tuesday morning, this week, Luna will present one of her displays, a total eclipse which will be visible everywhere in the United States—that is, everywhere it is not cloudy.

It seems, according to scientists, that when ever the moon gets into such a position that it is directly in the path of the umbral shadow of the earth, there is an eclipse. More people see these eclipses of the moon than see eclipses of the sun, because they usually are visible from about half of the earth's surface while those of the sun may be seen only within a narrow path, which, however, may be exceedingly long.

The eclipse of the moon early Tuesday starts at 1:25 a. m., and the total eclipse at 3:33, ending at 4:29. Thus it covers a period of 56 minutes. At 6:38 the moon will have emerged clear of the shadows of the earth.

MAKING FLYING FOOL-PROOF

The department of commerce casualty list giving all deaths resulting from airplane accidents in the first six months of the current year, conclusively proves one thing—that airplane flying, when scheduled trips are made on recognized airways is safer than motoring in the city streets, and that the real menace of flying comes from stunters and irresponsible students.

While there were 153 deaths traceable to airplanes in the six months, but seven of these deaths occurred among the great army engaged in commercial flying over controlled air lines, and where pilots are employed only after they have proven their fitness. This should be proof positive for the skeptics who still believe commercial and passenger flying is a novelty that will soon pass out.

The one thing to do, it would seem, for the protection of the public which wants to fly, and which is willing to risk its neck where little or nothing is known about pilots, ships and weather conditions aloft, is to repeat the warning that flying is safe only where there are competent pilots and stable ships. But what good will such a warning be, in the face of the constantly mounting total of deaths attributable to the motorcar?

But if a man or woman wants to fly, and will insist upon flying only with seasoned pilots, in ships known to be mechanically perfect, and from fields equipped to safeguard everyone, the deaths from airplaning will not attain the sinister total which has been attained in the motor car world. Making airplaning fool-proof may help a great deal, yet much will depend entirely upon the public itself.

What Others Say

Either Senator Royal S. Copeland, Democrat of New York, knows nothing about the St. Lawrence seaway project or else Senator Copeland was wilfully deceiving his hearers when he told a group of Middle Westerners gathered in New York recently that the seaway would build up the commerce of Montreal at the expense of American ports, and that it would benefit only Canadian farmers at the expense of American farmers.

If Senator Copeland is qualified to talk about the St. Lawrence seaway, then he should be well aware that the purpose of the project is not to bring ocean ships to Montreal, to which port ocean ships already come, but to bring ocean ships past Montreal, on up the river and through the Great Lakes to the fresh water harbors of Duluth and Superior, Milwaukee and Chicago, Cleveland and Detroit, Port Arthur and Fort William.

Instead of gaining anything, Montreal would lose some of its present transshipping business, just as New York would lose a little of its present transshipping business.

And that is the reason why both Montreal and New York are bitterly opposed to the seaway's development.

It is not, however, the building up of one port or the tearing down of another that interests the North-west and the Middle West. What these regions are demanding is a water route to Europe, with freight rates to world markets that will automatically increase the farm price of every unit of produce, whether sold for export or for domestic consumption.

To say now that the seaway must not be built merely because it will take some stevedore business away from the ports of New York and Montreal, is as outlandish as would have been, three-quarters of a century ago, a protest against construction of railways, on the ground that their operation would take business away from the exerts.

Senator Copeland's talk Tuesday reflects New York's determination that the St. Lawrence route must be fought by every conceivable means, fair or foul. Is it any wonder, then, that millions of western farmers, whose future prosperity is inevitably linked with the fate of the St. Lawrence project, prefer Herbert Hoover, avowed friend of the plan, to Gov. Alfred E. Smith, who only recently was its avowed enemy?—Minneapolis Journal.

The Stars Say—

For Tuesday, Nov. 27.

By GENEVIEVE KEMBLE.

CONFLICTING astral conditions are seen among the planetary configurations for this day. Although there will be many openings and advantages, with unusual activity and some financial returns, yet there is a menace of intrigue and sinister undoing, especially in negotiations with corporations, rings or with secret societies. Also there is some danger of violence or accident.

Those whose birthday it is are likely to find a year of contradictions, with excellent openings and desirable change, attended by some financial benefits, but there is likewise omen of fraud, duplicity or subterfuge, and undermining of the interests. Be careful of this and safeguard the employment. A child born on this day may be ingenious, original and independent as well as brave and enterprising, but it may also incline to subtle rather than straightforward methods and dealings.

TWO MEALS EACH DAY SUFFICIENT FOR HIM

By Royal S. Copeland, M. D., United States Senator from New York, Former Commissioner of Health, New York City.

Some time ago I had a letter from a Philadelphia man which was filled with good suggestions. He says he always reads my health articles in his home paper. The particular one which excited his interest related to what this man says about his own habits. He is 62 years of age, he says, but feels as well as he did at 30.

Mr. correspondent says that his business keeps him closely confined to the office. He does not get as much exercise as he would like to take. But he does manage to get in a couple of games of golf every week.

He must be a remarkable man because, after going round 18 holes in golf, he says he seems to feel as though he were "just warmed up for a real game." His contemporaries in age, he says, "could no more do this than fly." It really is a remarkable record.

It would be interesting to know how much the eating habits of this man have to do with his excellent physical condition. He complains that most men who do not have as much exercise as he does are as a rule big eaters. They do not get much at breakfast time, but always take lunch and then go to a big dinner. Then, too, some of them are likely to take another heavy meal late at night. There is no wonder they complain of constipation and headache. My Philadelphia friend takes a good breakfast every morning. He never eats any lunch and never eats anything late at night. He does take a good dinner at 6 o'clock. By the time he is ready for bed, his meal is well digested; he sleeps well and gets up in the morning "feeling like a million dollars."

There is no question at all, that men along in life make a great mistake if they eat too much. All they need food for is to repair the waste of the day. Growth was long ago completed and it is undesirable to lay on fat. All a man needs at this time of life is just enough food to furnish the energy and the immediate repairs.

There can be no doubt that eliminating lunch, the stomach is given a long period of rest every day. With enough water to cleanse the tissues the system will get along well with the limited amount of food my correspondent takes.

If the stomach is cluttered with food and as the result constipation develops, there is no wonder. There is headache, hardening of the arteries, high blood pressure and all sorts of disagreeable symptoms.

Simple living, plenty of sunlight, moderate exercise and temperate eating, are really the secret of good health and long life.

DREAD NEURITIS IS CONQUERED BY MODERN MEDICINE

Arms and Shoulders Were Solid
Mass of Aches and Pains; New
Konjola Restored Her Health

MRS. LEAH SNIDER

"I am praising Konjola because it is the only medicine that relieved me of neuritis and I hope that others will profit from my experience," said Mrs. Leah Snider, 641 Brooklyn Avenue, Dayton, Ohio.

"It seemed impossible to get relief from that dreadful neuritis. Dull aching pains hurt me constantly and it became an impossibility to use my arms. As the days passed this ailment became more severe until the ailment affected me, clear back to my shoulders. At times, I felt sick all over. I lost weight and strength until I was but a shell of my former self."

"I had no faith in any medicine, but I was prevailed upon to give Konjola a trial and what a blessing it is that I did. Right from the start, it helped me and as I continued with the treatment, the pains and aches eased up until they had disappeared completely. Now there is not a trace of that ailment anywhere in my body and I feel just like a different person. Words fail me when I try to praise Konjola."

Konjola is sold in Salem, Ohio, at all J. H. Lease stores and by all best druggists in this vicinity.—Adv.

GRAND JURY TO CHECK MURDER

Arnold Rothstein Case Is Being Reviewed By Body

New York, Nov. 26.—The grand jury today took the lid off the Arnold Rothstein murder case to see what they could see.

Fifty witnesses were scheduled to parade before the grand jury starting today. District Attorney Jacob B. Davis said that he would seek indictments of George (Rumpy) McManus "and others."

McManus, brother of a New York police lieutenant, is alleged to have been one of the men in Room 349 of the Park Central hotel where Rothstein was "killed on the spot" supposedly for winning on a gambling debt. ### Stowaway Safe

London, Nov. 26.—A young orphan negro, who stowed away on Commander Richard E. Byrd's supply ship City of New York, will be allowed to accompany the Byrd Antarctic expedition to the South pole, said a Central News dispatch from Auckland today. The City of New York reached Auckland carrying the main body of the expedition. Several stowaways were found aboard but all save the young negro were landed at the first port.

Winnipeg, Man.—The Manitoba Revenue Inspector's report on the 1927-28 fiscal year ending April 30, 1928. Net profits were $1,345,117. Sale for the fiscal year totaled $3,985,005.

Mothers—Try Mild Children's Musterole

Of course, you know good old Musterole; how quickly, how easily it relieves chest colds, sore throat, rheumatic and neuralgic pain, sore joints and muscles, stiff neck and lumbago.

We also want you to know CHILDREN'S MUSTEROLE—Musterole in milder form. Unexcelled for relief of croupy coughs and colds; it penetrates, soothes and relieves without the blister of the old-fashioned mustard plaster. Keep a jar handy. It comes ready to apply instantly, without fuss or bother.

BETTER than a mustard plaster

LOANS up to $500

Another advantage in dealing with The City Loan is that you can always feel sure of having access to the newest improvements and latest developments in financing.

Here you can get a loan with long terms and small payments, and, in addition, be substantially rewarded for paying promptly. For every loan payment that is made "on time," you save ten percent of the interest as a reward for your punctuality. It is a saving worth considering during the term of the average loan.

This is just another City Loan advancement for the good of its patrons. When better loans are made, The City Loan will make them.

Markets

MARKET AGAIN OPENS WILDLY; ORDERS ABOUND

Saturday Closing Has No Effect On Stocks

New York, Nov. 26.—Like a dam suddenly released by its barriers, buying demand for industrial stocks flooded the financial district at the beginning of trading today and stock prices sky-rocketed 2-10 points. In some cases the most tempting offers brought no response from the holders of the shares.

There was no indication that the Saturday closing of the big board had toned down the current speculative fever. Everybody wanted stocks.

International Nickel closed on Friday at 203. As high as 219 was offered for this stock when the gong sounded this morning, but holders were "sitting tight." Finally a block sold at 214 1/2, up 1 1/2 points.

Victor Talking Machine stock advanced to 156, a week end jump of 10 points and a gain of 102 points since its graduation from the curb a few months ago.

A dozen or more of the favorites rushed up close to 5 points. The list was a long one, including Consolidated Gas, Radio (up 7 points); Andes Copper; General Electric; Pathe Exchange; United States Steel; Cerro de Pasco; Canadian Pacific; Union Carbide; Nash Motor and Chrysler.

A long list of the copper stocks forged ahead.

Stock sales fell short of a million shares in the first half hour against the 1,237,269 shares in this period on Friday. The tape was about 10 minutes behind at the end of the first hour.

Cash money was unchanged at 6 1/2 per cent.

Past Week Greatest Ever Known On Markets

New York, Nov. 26.—In a riot of raging speculative buying the like of which has never been seen in any civilized country industrial stocks surged forward 10 to 50 points a day and 25 to 100 for the week, in the third week of the "Hoover bull market."

Old-timers in Wall Street, the bulls and bears of many a campaign, stood aghast as the "blue blood" in the speculative game, led by the most powerful pools and cliques ever known to the financial markets, bid their stocks skyward in mad frenzy of money marketing. If ever a run-away market was witnessed in Wall Street, that stage has certainly been reached, and the bankers and conservative community heads at the week-end sounded a stern warning against unbridled speculation in stocks which long ago have passed the sensible price stage, based on corporation's earnings and dividends.

Manipulation
Stock manipulation in its most dangerous form is being resorted to in Wall Street these days. Manipulation prices is most easily accomplished in the "blue chips" of the speculative game, the high-priced industrials and specialties which are

Columbiana Woman Ask for Divorces

Because she has been compelled to support herself by working in patronies at East Liverpool, Phoebe Calhoun through her counsel W. A. O'Grady has filed a divorce petition in common pleas court against her husband John Calhoun. Now employed at East Liverpool, they were married June 17, 1911, and have three children.

Mrs. Calhoun charges her husband with gross neglect of duty, accusing him of swearing at her and also of threatening her life. She also charges that Calhoun has spent his money in riotous living.

On the grounds of gross neglect of duty and drunkenness, a divorce decree has been granted Elizabeth V. Stewart against her husband Robert P. Stewart. Property referred to in the petition in this case has been awarded by the court to the plaintiff.

Edna May Lisk, a minor through her next friend Marie Davis has filed a divorce petition in common pleas court against her husband Howard F. Lisk of Harvey ave. East Liverpool. The plaintiff will be aged 20 years. Dec. 4, and is represented by Cochran and Crawford of East Liverpool.

Mrs. Lisk has related she was married at New Cumberland, W. Va., June 2, 1926, and during the last 10 months her husband has been guilty of extreme cruelty. In addition to a decree and alimony, the plaintiff asks the court to restore her to her maiden name Edna May Davis.

Judge To Leave
Judge C. L. Newcomer of Bryan, O., who has been presiding in common pleas court No. 2 for several weeks, will close his present assignment Wednesday. He will return to this county the week of Dec. 10, and will probably remain at Lisbon for two weeks, closing his assignment for that period Dec. 22.

Judge Newcomer will retire from office at the close of the present year. It has been indicated by Judge W. F. Lones that no visiting judge will preside in this county until probably during the spring term of court.

Files Intent
Recco Remeo of Lisbon has filed his declaration of intent with Clerk of Courts Frank Ballantine to become a citizen of the United States. He is aged 30 years, a native of Italy, and arrived at Boston Sept. 20, 1913.

Overruled
A motion to the petition has been overruled in the case of the Salem Realty Co., against the City of Salem, and leave has been granted the defendant to file its answer on or before Dec. 1. In this case the plaintiff seeks $5,000 damages from the defendant corporation. The action has been pending since May 21, 1925.

Case Postponed
At the request of the defendant, Edward C. Garalde, charged with manslaughter, and whose case was to go to trial before Judge W. F. Lones next Monday, has been passed from the present assignment at the request of the defendant. This is on account of the illness of Attorney E. L. Lyon of East Palestine, as counsel for Garalde.

Garalde was indicted by the September grand jury, following the death of F. W. Ferguson, residing near New Waterford, and who died following an automobile crash. After he entered a plea of not guilty to the indictment, bond of $5,000 was given.

Action Filed
An action to have a deed set aside has been entered in common pleas by Ida E. King by her counsel Ronald M. Campbell of Salem against Bonita M. Camp and O. O. Cook. The property referred to in the petition is lot 8 in Sheet's first addition, Salem.

Remand Case
The case of Salem the case of Capt. Bro. of Remand against Joseph Matevich to the justice of the peace at Salem who tried the original issue. The transcript filed in this case in the higher court has been dismissed by the plaintiff at their costs.

Verdict
A jury has returned a verdict for $223 in favor of the plaintiff in the case of Peter Fast against E. H.

virtually cornered and in which the whole "floating" supply could easily be placed in your vest pocket.

In the scramble for easy money which dominated the stock market this week, the so-called fundamentals in business, finance, trade—anything with a sensible bearing on stock prices, were blown to the winds. Nothing mattered except that prices were jumping, leaping sky-rocketing 25 points at a clip, 60 points an afternoon. Ambition to make their favorites join the aristocratic 200-and-400-club, professional-jerked their stocks wildly forward, two new members of the $500-a-share class having been elected this week.

Mergers
Giant mergers, combinations, new affiliations of corporations before the public eye, actual and rumored, fired the gambling spirit of stock speculators all over the country, and the wires groaned under the load of buying orders that swept in, not only from American points, but also from the lands beyond the sea.

Though stock sales on one session were reported at 6,700,000 shares, there is little doubt that no record was obtainable of the transfers of thousands of shares of stock in and out of the brokerage houses, and that a 7,000,000 share session has actually been established. But why stock at 7,000,000 shares? Speculation in this country has reached the stage where everybody with a few dollars to spare is now dabbling in stocks, in and out, and the stock exchange confidently expects the coming of the first 10,000,000-share day at no very distant date.

Memberships
The fact that $550,000 was paid for stock exchange membership this week is ample evidence of the extremely profitable basis of present day stock trading.

Radio Corporation sold up close to 100 points for the week; Wright Aero 80 points; Curtiss Aero 45; Victor Talking Machine 45; Montgomery Ward 35 and a score of the well-known copper, steel, amusement and specialty stocks five to 15 points. Sealing the longest heights yet reached in the long list of sensational bull markets, industrial stocks offered a golden harvest to those who had bought them farther down the line. Tempting as these profits seemed, in many cases they were scored by the holders of the stocks, to whom the "sky is the limit" is the only yard stick of measurement rightly understood.

House of Salem. The plaintiff sued to recover $425 on the sale of an automobile.

Case Resumed
On account of the illness of a juror, the case of Jonas Peppel against the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will be resumed Monday morning. The plaintiff is seeking $10,568.17 damages from the defendant.

Dismissed
The $2,000 personal injury action filed by E. P. Kurtz against H. C. Hart has been dismissed at the costs of the plaintiff, with no record following.

Seek Judgment
Leave to the defendant to answer by Dec. 15 has been granted by the court in the action filed by Henry U. Spence against C. P. Adamson and the Adamson Manufacturing Co. of East Palestine, wherein judgment for $1,500 is sought.

Settlement
There has been a settlement at the costs of the plaintiff without record in the case of George K. Dietz against Harry Fisher. The plaintiff is seeking $1,232.50 on an account.

Report
The report of the commissioners has been approved by the court in the partition proceedings filed by Elizabeth Shasteen against Sarah F. Christie and others. The plaintiff has elected to take the property described in the petition at the appraised value. A deed has been ordered by the court.

Actions Filed
Jacob H. Varner, aged 68 years, residing at Logtown, near Lisbon has filed a $5,000 damage action in common pleas court at Lisbon against W. Rosenberg of 1907 Grant st., Akron, as a result of an automobile wreck on the Salem-Damascus rd. July 22, last.

Mrs. Rose Varner, aged 38, a passenger in the Varner car, also has filed the same defendant for $5,000 damages.

Varner in addition to damages for personal injuries seeks $75 in damages to his car. Mrs. Varner declares in her petition that she also was injured as a result of the wreck, the petition relating that Rosenberg was driving 60 miles per hour when the wreck occurred. Both petitions were filed by Attorney Frank W. Wardy of Cleveland.

File Action
The Perpetual Saving & Loan company of Wellsville has filed an action in foreclosure in common pleas against John J. Lamp to recover a judgment of $1,693.69, claimed to be due on a loan of $1,000 executed Aug. 3, 1927.

The same interest has filed a similar proceeding against George W. Runyon and others to recover a judgment of $6,564.95, on a loan of $7,500 executed Sept. 15, 1923.

McDonald, McDowell, through Wells & McDonald, Wellsville, has also filed foreclosure proceedings against Buster Perry and others seeking judgment for $430.64 and interest, on a loan secured by mortgage on a lot at 12th and White sts., Wellsville.

Default

Everett R. Kessell and wife to Mae Lois Webster, lot Fraser's addition, Wellsville, $6,800.

Grants Leave

Salem High Victory Assures Gridiron Honors In County

East Palestine Gives Stonemen Hard Fight, Red-Black Cops 9-0

The Red and Black banner of Salem High reigns supreme in Columbiana county football competition for the third consecutive year. Coach Floyd Stone's stonemen, defeating East Palestine 9-0 Saturday at Reilly Stadium, in a game featured by the surprising power of the day, at Reilly Stadium.

Tradition, to the East Palestine aggregation meant nothing, and despite the fact that everything pointed to an easy victory for the Red and Black, it made a gallant effort to smash through the string of successive wins held by Salem High. Stone was forced to use every available atom of power before the plucky Palestine stonemen were turned back, defeated, but not licked.

Only three Salem veterans carried the game in their regular positions. Capt. Jimmy Seaton, was shifted to left end in place of ineligible Joe Pasco, and with Ed Singer, Patsy Konert, and "Jimmy" Weber, was the only regular to start the game. George Schmid, scrub center, played all but three minutes at Seaton's center position.

Salem Scores on Safety
A safety by Seaton's late in the second period, gave Salem its first two points. Green Whinnery, who was injected into the lineup to replace Ed Beck, with Sidinger and Konert, ran the ball down the field to Palestine's 31 yard line. There the opposing line braced, and Sidinger placed a punt to roll out of bounds on the two-yard line. Steinhauser dropped back to punt out of danger, but stepped into the end zone, as he kicked, an automatic safety.

Salem's longest drive of the game resulted in the only touchdown in the third quarter. Herbert kicked off over the goal line for a touch-back. Bill Smith replaced Joe Volpe and smashed off-tackle for five yards. Whinnery made six off left tackle, and Konert and Smith each added eight. Sidinger bucked through for nine, and the march continued down the field to the 11-yard line. Sidinger bucked to the five-yard line with a six-yard smash through center; he took it to the one-inch line on the next play, and Whinnery dove over for the score. Glenn added the extra point, when he smashed through left tackle.

Fumbles Frequent

Fumbles by Konert and Sidinger gave Palestine good chances to score in the first three minutes of play. Herbert kicked off over the goal line, and Sidinger fumbled on the first play, Gorbey recovering. Three line plays failed, and Herbert tried a place kick. The entire Salem line was through on him, and he was blocked, and it was Salem's ball on its own 38-yard line.

Konert duplicated Sidinger's disastrous stunt, Steinhauser dropping on the ball on Salem's 35-yard line. Steinhauser made four through Gorbey, Mollenkopf added four, and Gorbey made it first down with a five yard romp off tackle. Gorbey fumbled on the next play, Sidinger recovering for Salem on his 18-yard line.

The game was marked by the lack of any attempt by either team to display any tricky or unorthodox football. Sidinger threw only six passes, the muddy condition of the ball making it impossible for him to heave it accurately, and each was incomplete. Not a pass was tried by Palestine. It was an ideal day for spectators, but a bad one for the gridgers.

Stone continually kept several of his hard working reserves in the game, giving them their first real chance of the season against what could really be termed opposition. Several of the linemen played impressive class of ball, but need grooming. The starting lineup with only the four regulars, lacked the finesse that comes only with experience.

Salem's "big four," Sidinger, Konert, Smith, and Whinnery played together only during the third quarter. Each ripped off long gains as their part in the extended game-winning excursion enjoyed by the Red and Black during the period, but Stone apparently was satisfied with their condition for the final Thanksgiving day fracas, and showed Volpe, Drakulich, Beck, Terry, and the remainder of his reserves into action.

George Schmid, opposed by Don, East Palestine center who is second only to Capt. Seaton in all-around ability in Columbiana county, played a scrappy game, giving Don real opposition. Dornon was the outstanding lineman of the Palestine squad. Curry, halfback, was the most consistent Brown and White ground-gainer.

Natl. Dairy Show's Home In St. Louis To Cost $1,500,000

St. Louis, Nov. 23.—The National Dairy show has been assured of a permanent home here with the recent announcement of plans for a $1,500,000 group of buildings which are to be erected here as a home for the exhibition. The first show will be held in the fall of 1929, according to present plans.

The structure is to have a seating capacity of 14,000 and an arena 400 feet long and 284 feet wide. There is to be a show ring in the center of the house. An exhibit building will be on either side connected with the main building by covered walks for the patrons and tunnels for the livestock.

Each structure will be of brick and will be 285 feet wide and 300 feet long.
The booths and stalls are to be of portable construction and the buildings can be converted into convention halls and may be used for various athletic events.

According to Harold M. Dixey, chairman of the board of directors of the St. Louis Chamber of Commerce, and one of the backers of the Lindbergh flight, the proposed construction of an operating company will be known as the Forest Park Highlands Amusement company. Location of a $1,500,000 bond issue is contemplated since the project under present plans is an essentially private enterprise, the possibility of a public bond issue will be eliminated. The buildings will be used for the purpose of a dairy show but two weeks out of the year, even though they were constructed for this purpose.

James E. Meredith (above), former Olympic and University of Pennsylvania track star, has been appointed assistant track coach at his alma mater. He will assist Lawson Robertson in grooming candidates for cinder path honors. Meredith is holder of the world's quarter-mile record.

Intelligence Tests Bring Decrease In Army Desertions

Washington, Nov. 26.—Desertions from the regular army during the fiscal year ending June 30, last, fell off slightly owing to intelligence tests applicants for enlistment must undergo according to Maj. Gen. Lutz Wall, adjutant general of the army in his annual report made public today.

Intelligence tests introduced experimentally in several corps areas during the previous fiscal year, Gen. Wall said, were put into general operation at the beginning of the last fiscal year and were designed to aid in the elimination of undesirable applicants.
"As a result of the precautions taken," Wall reported, "the percentage of desertions during the year again showed a decrease, having been 5.81 per cent as compared with 6.67 per cent for the previous fiscal year."

The standing army in June 30, last, the report showed, was 134,553, of which 12,112 were commissioned officers.

Picking Pigskin Champ Presents Some Puzzle

Logical Title Contenders Numbered Among Teams Which Were Topped Saturday; Weaker Ones Repose On Top of Heap from Standing

BY DAVIS J. WALSH
New York, Nov. 23.—This thing they call football will go too far with its whimsicalities one of these days and then it will have us picking the national champion by a method featured largely by the fact that you look one place and hit another. At that, I can't think of a more appropriate and timely system in dealing with what is left of the situation after Saturday's caprices had done their worst.
Five candidates, four of them of major consequence, stripped of their credentials with a single gesture and reduced to the ranks. A few short hours and they were cast into the limbo of football's forgotten, no longer champions-in-prospect, no longer contenders.

Tech Out
Carnegie Tech, the team so impressive in its victory over Notre Dame, had only to beat New York University to place itself in a position where it could say it was a contender. But N. Y. U. won as only a better team can and Tech passes quietly from the portrait, disqualified from further consideration. Wisconsin seemingly was about to win the Big Ten title or at least get no worse than a tie. It got no worse than approximately nothing, for it lost to Minnesota. Iowa dropped an amazing decision to Michigan and Illinois came along with a victory over Ohio State to win the championship.

Ohio Wesleyan, for example, simply couldn't lose to Wittenberg after beating Michigan and Syracuse. But you can lose any game in which you score one point less than the opposition, this being one of the conclusions Mrs. Walsh's bright boy has arrived at after mature study. Wesleyan's defeat reduced the list of unbeaten teams by exactly one more.

Two More
Another to fall was Nebraska and a third Princeton. The latter wasn't

Losses from all causes among enlisted men during the year aggregated 52,914, while enlistments and re-enlistments totaled 55,748 men; 93,1 were native born.

Upsets Prove Feature Of Closing Session, Wesleyan Is Beaten

Columbus, Nov. 26.—Two scores Ohio college football teams, settled back into the daily routine of classes and studying today following the official closing of the 1928 gridiron season in three conferences of the state, last Saturday.

Saturday's games brought to an end one of the most colorful grid seasons in the state for several years which was marked by many hard-fought contests and startling upsets throughout. "Old Man Upset" gave a mighty kick to the proverbial dope-bucket as the season halted Saturday. With every dooper in the state giving Ohio Wesleyan an edge over the Wittenberg eleven in the final match of the Buckeye Inter-collegiate Athletic association, the Lutherans figured in one of the most surprising upsets of the season by emerging from the game one point in the lead of the Buckeye. The Methodists fell before the under-rated Lutheran aggregation after passing through a brilliant season in which they defeated Michigan, Syracuse and four other buckeye association teams.

As a result of the Lutheran victory, Ohio Wesleyan and Wittenberg are sharing honors at the top of the Buckeye conference, each with a record of four victories and one defeat. Miami, by virtue of her two victories is in second position with Denison and Ohio university tied for third and Cincinnati fourth after passing through the season without a victory.

Much Weaker
Although her team is considered much weaker than holders of other prominent positions in the Ohio conference, Heidelberg with five victories and no defeats is sitting alone on the top rung of the conference ladder. Dayton gridgers who won three games in the conference is second and the St. Xavier team which played but one game in the circuit and resulted favorably to the Musketeers, is the holder of third place. Ohio Wesleyan with six victories and one defeat takes the fourth position below her much weaker conference mates.

With her record marred only by a single tie game Bowling Green college ended her season Saturday the winner of the Northwestern Ohio conference. Defiance broke into second place by winning over Bluffton in the final game. The team threw Bluffton into a tie with Toledo for third place, finally winning one and losing three during the season ended in the cellar berth.

The season just ended was one of great importance to the Hiram football team which broke a losing streak of six years when it won over the Otterbein eleven in the latter days of October. It won a second such a week later at the expense of the Baldwin-Wallace squad.

Baldwin-Wallace with the heaviest conference schedule of any of the teams in the Ohio group lost more games during the season than any one other team played Baldwin-Wallace was defeated nine times by conference teams.

Planning menus, marketing, entertaining—these three duties of the home-maker are vastly simplified when she has a General Electric Refrigerator.

And more important is the pleasant feeling of security—the absolute knowledge that her family's food is always fresh and wholesome. Even in winter, scientifically correct refrigeration is vital. Kitchens are warm all the year round, and food, to be wholesome—to be safe to eat, needs to be kept constantly at a temperature below 50 degrees.

The General Electric Refrigerator is different from all others—it is truly "years ahead" in design. All its mechanism is sealed in an air-tight steel casing, which is up on top, forever safe from dust and difficulties. It never even needs oiling.

The General Electric Refrigerator is guaranteed to give you perfect refrigeration—quietly, automatically and economically! Come in and see this most modern of all refrigerators. You may buy yours either for cash or on deferred payments.

"POWER"
William Boyd's newest and most delightful picture, "Power," is at the Grand three days starting tonight. Filmed on the tremendous Pasadena Dam in California, it has many thrills measures of comedy.

Aside from the aerial feats of Alan Hale and William Boyd, high above the summit of the world's tallest power dam, honors of the evening go equally to Jacqueline Logan as to the comedy duo. She plays a "little girl" trying to get along, the demure and artful mix, feeling both the boys to the top of their bent. The scene of the night parking in the woods is a classic, including the interpolated "gag" of the girl who "walked back" on roller skates.

The small-town Romans were their reveller's battle in the lobby of the Hotel Bachelio. They hit everything but the capidors. Boyd and Hale stop abruptly as they see their fair chamber doing into a taxi, accompanied by the romance, played by Jerry Drew. "Would be unfair to divulge the end of the story which does not let down its fast and whimsical pace until the closing curtains.

A dame, another dame and a third dame are cleverly played by Jean Bennett, Pauline Curley and Carol Lombard. "Power" is excellent entertainment because of its breakaway from tradition and its authentic originality. Bill Boyd is delightful, Alan Hale and "Jackie" Logan are aptly fitted.

"SAWDUST PARADISE"

An intimate, behind-the-scenes romance of three interesting and human persons is at the State.

It's a Paramount offering called, "The Sawdust Paradise," and you are called to forget your own joys and sorrows as those of Esther Bowman, Herbert Bosworth and Reed Howes, unfold before you.

Miss Bowman and Reed Howes are halcyon girl and grifter respectively with Herbert Bosworth as the aged revivifier. First and foremost it is not a religious picture, though it has a religious angle. It is a chunk of life from the colorful career of a carnival girl. It capitalizes the present public interest in evangelism without treading on anyone's toes. It has the novel angle demonstrating how a girl with real showman's ability uses a circus ballroom—gleam calico and all the trimmings—to put over an evangelist's meeting and how she incidentally accomplishes a great deal of good.

Howes goes away and purchases a carnival for himself and Esther, and the original show with the new carnival and revival meetings opens in the same town. Miss Bowman, however, is so interested in her new work that she cannot go back to her old life. The climax comes with a fight between the rival carnival people.

"AT THE ROYAL"

The feature at the Royal theater, entitled "Court-Martial," gets away from the time worn plot and offers the public something refreshingly new. The Columbia production, starring Jack Holt, has a semi-historical background. The action takes place during the Lincoln administration and deals with the guerrilla gangs that terrorized the inhabitants of the border states following the Civil war.

"Court-Martial" graphically pictures one of these gangs and illustrates the reason for their existence. Holt is a young army officer, commissioned by Abraham Lincoln to break up the gang and bring in the leader, Belle Starr, dead or alive. Betty Compson portrays the girl and wins the hearts of her audience.

She believes her cause is right and even has the sympathy of every person. Even when the captain allows the girl to escape and is court-martialed there is a certain satisfaction that she got away and a vague hope that Holt will get out of the affair without paying the penalty.

Setting An Attractive Thanksgiving Table

Setting the Thanksgiving table attractively is a feature of the day no matter whether it is for just the family or for extra guests. Florists hold back their choicest chrysanthemums, large leaved foliage plants, large ferns for the day and best of all the colored Day leaves. Colored fruit centerpieces, suggestions of plentiful harvests are always in favor.

The old Colonial table was a great favorite, with its heavy damask linen tablecloth and a centerpiece of fruits and leaves. Then it had a candelabra at either side of old silver, a circle of little silver, or cut glass, dishes of relishes and sweets, at the base under the candle light and corner dishes of celery, moulded cranberry sauce, jellied calf's feet, and sliced baked ham. Dinner announced the guests saw a finely roasted bird at one end of the table and a table chicken pie at the other, while at each place the rich soup was always served. The modern table is quite different. Even the foaming pitchers of cider have disappeared with the robust, but delightful meal that made our ancestors hale and hearty.

The ultra modern table of today we are likely to find covered with a lace trimmed cloth or an elaborate runner and doilies, a center arrangement of roses or chrysanthemums in Fall colors, tall yellow candles, flat silver for three courses and a table chicken pie at the other, while at each place the rich soup was always served. The modern table is quite different. Even the foaming pitchers of cider have disappeared with the robust, but delightful meal that made our ancestors hale and hearty.

hunger, but not the least suggestion of harvest plenty that the folks of the olden days felt, necessary to their expression of thankfulness in this great day. Perhaps the modern generation, having never known the lavish abundance of the olden times do not find the modern day table a bit empty and colorless, but those who remember the gay days of preparation, the perfume of good cooking in the air that drew one to the kitchen door on immediate errands just to "smell" feel that it is but a faithful tradition and almost forget what day it really is.

A Chinese holiday table might be copied by those who do not want to fuss very much, by using a center mat and doilies of finely woven straw, a centerpiece of one large yellow chrysanthemum in a slender old casket blue vase. The meal is served in little Canton blue dishes with individual portions. The feast is in constant circulation and the sweets are likely to be preserved ginger, kumquats, and was green melons. The turkey and was pie have been harbored for the feast but never appear upon the plate, but they would suggest desire to all Chinese guests, but appear in favorite pieces for each "honorable" guest with the inevitable rice.

A thoroughly modern paper table sometimes appeals and it also has some advantages. The new paper plates and cups are undeniably attractive in shape and decoration. The table may be covered with one of the new tablecloths that are in damask patterns, with napkins to match that are large enough to be quite acceptable. The centerpiece may be of a large imitation pie filled with favors, the paper candlesticks match the dishes and hold the candles that are shielded by little pumpkin shades.

STYLE EDICTS

Paris, Nov. 26.—Evening gloves will be long again this winter, according to the smart dressmakers who are showing a number of their newest models with them.

They come well over the elbow and are quite as elaborate as the frocks worn with them. Some are decorated with an all-over pattern of small discs and circles, alternately embroidered and pointed, small colored beads are combined with silk or metal embroidery in rich effects. Wool and velvet chenille appear in striking relief motifs.

Alexandrine is showing several long mosquitoire cuff gloves, trimmed with a novel type of embroidery made with loops of metal thread intermingled with strands in white or contrasting color. Brazel effects come on glove cuffs with a large crystal or gold chain motif, the center simulating the clasp. The wide cuff trimmed with dainty petit point is always popular.

A lively glove is pearl-gray tulle with a narrow band of a darker shade of the suede at the wrist embroidered in tiny steel and silver beads with a long narrow pin of crystal in the center. A circular gauntlet is lined with a lighter shade of the suede which may be

Europe Turning To American Ideas In Business, Industry

Chicago, Nov. 26.—The "socialization of industry and government," growing in Europe for many years, according to Dr. Otto Boehler of Vienna, president of the Manufacturers' Association of Austria, visitor in Chicago, was intensified in the aftermath of the World war but the pendulum of public sentiment is beginning to swing the other way, toward the American idea of progress in industry.

The social Democratic government of Austria, Dr. Boehler said, spreads its taxes in a manner generally inimical to the growth of industry and prosperity but it must be commended for the economy and wisdom of its expenditures. Municipal housing problems in Vienna are rapidly catching up with the vast increase of population of the capital following the war but the rents, translated in terms of American money, are ridiculously low because of depression.

A THREE DAYS' COUGH IS YOUR DANGER SIGNAL

Coughs from colds may lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth. Of all known drugs creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for coughs from colds and bronchial irritations. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs. Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of coughs from colds, bronchitis and minor forms of bronchial irritations, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (adv.)
